The difference between Méxican Bingo and Regular Bingo is that the cards have handdrawn pictures in them instead of numbers, which makes the game alot more "fun" beacuse "the host" calls each image in both Spanish and English. The objective of this game it's to fill the entire card with the provided beans, and the first one to win, will be rewarded with a prize! 13+ Parental Advisory.

How to build the queerest D&D campaign there ever was!

Thursday 4:00 PM–5:00 PM

Room: Green Timber 2

Participants: Qmunity

Following a 2023 pilot test, QMUNITY's youth program will be launching a brand new D&D campaign specifically for its youth program participants. Many of the youth who access mental health and community support at QMUNITY have been incredibly excited to try a campaign for their very first time - but they need your help! To help our youth enter into the amazing world of Dungeons & Dragons, we need ideas and recommendations to help craft NPCs, Big Bads, Side-quests and storylines. In this session, we are going to invite our Game Master to lead a conversation between you and our team to talk about and workshop ideas around "How to build the queerest D&D campaign, there ever was". Are you game? Are you willing to accept this quest? We can't wait to see you there!

Music and Audio for Furry Creators

Thursday 7:00 PM–8:00 PM

Room: Green Timber 1

Participants: Hawk

Audio is an important piece of many media forms ranging from video games and films to podcasts and youtube channels. A great audio mix can drastically increase the quality of these. Over the course of an hour we will go over the basics of music and audio production, and how this can increase the quality of your media. This includes all the basics such as: Using a Digital Audio Workstation (DAW), designing sound effects, writing music, recording audio, processing audio with plugins and effects, and more. Advanced audio topics may be covered as well depending on the experience and requests of who shows up. Everyone is welcome, whether you are a musician, podcaster, youtuber, indie game developer, or someone who is just interested in audio. We will also have a Q&A at the end if anyone has any specific questions about music and audio. Come hang out and let's talk sound!
